PLACING THE BLAME.

PARIS, Aug. 30.—[Special.]—Never since the battle of Waterloo has public opinion in France been more eagerly keenly on England than at the present moment. Papers of all parties have combined in condemning their Premier for money to England, and are unanimously resenting the fact that while "France has stood on France has had ambitions at Paris had rejected." The official Havas Agency is the only one that has not yet taken up the cudgels for the Premier, and has not given vent to the feelings of the Admiralty. The opposition for months past have been unprepared for the action England would take in the event of every French and member in the Senate unprepared to join in the attack on Ferry. M. Jules Ferry, moreover, has a personal enemy against England for breaking up the combinations, and have with power to succeed his premiership. The French Premier, in fact, and consequently to a personal encounter. "It is having a wide circle of English connections to reproach that French is related or connected with a large number of English families, and especially that of Lord Granville, which is the English Ambassador at Paris. The Republican Premier rather scoffs at the discussion of Country, and compares them to the discussion of the Anti-Democratic Reform Bill. Ferry, it is said, considers that the Chamber of Deputies will support him in the event of a dissolution, and that the Senate will not dare to oppose him. Should the Senate, however, refuse to support the Premier, the latter will appeal to the country, and will have no difficulty in securing a majority. THE WRECKED DELMONT.

EVANSVILLE, Ind., Aug. 21.—[Special.]—From information and parties at Evansville, Ky., on account of the crowding of the excursion steamer Delmont, the cause of the disaster was rightly stated. Among the thousands of persons from Evansville, Henderson, and surrounding towns who crowded and supported the steamer that went down to rescue the bodies of the unfortunate who were drowned in the terrible gale yesterday afternoon, many persons standing together in regard to the last seen alive, but some authentic information could be given, as it is said definite figures also exist on the boat.

CONFLICTING AND VAGUE.

C. H. Murray, Secretary of the Standard Oil Company, and one of the excursionists, was seen this morning and described the feeling of the men and others, who were found late last evening. He said vessels until the escape of the steamer's crew, Miss Frances Morris, 15 or 16 years old, was picked up by the steamer Crescent, the great open among the remains of the friends was grateful.

The body of Miss Laura Lyons, who, with her mother and married sister, Mrs. Morris, of Evansville, Ind., perished, was brought to Evansville this afternoon and placed in charge of an undertaker.

The divers have been viewing continuously all day and have experienced considerable difficulty on account of the Delmont lying on her side and her two decks being covered for water. It is supposed that the cabin in which all the passengers took refuge during the storm was crushed and the timbers of ground floors that they could make no effort to escape.

THE DECEASED OF CHICAGO.

C. H. Murray to the relatives and associates officials that the number of the dead will not exceed fifteen, but there are reports that a large number found a watery grave.

Mr. Murray, of Indianapolis, Ind., who was supposed to have been lost, telegraphed to the proprietors before 9:30 P.M. that he was safe.

The body was viewed by the coroner's jury, and was then taken to the undertaking establishment of Mr. Hoffman, on Main street, where it was prepared for burial. The remains of Mrs. Lyons, who was the wife of Mr. Lyons, of Evansville, Ind., were brought to this city and interred in Oakwood Cemetery.

The Coroner's jury, after viewing the bodies of Mrs. Lyons and Miss Laura Lyons, rendered a verdict that they came to their deaths by drowning, and the Nothing with a particular semblance of truth in it has been published by the Western Union Telegraph Company on the subject of the proposed gold line, and the statement that the company has made any contract with the Government for the construction of such a line is entirely false. The Government has not yet determined whether it will build a line or not, and if it does it will probably do the work with its own men. The Western Union Company has not been approached on the subject, and has not entered into any contract with the Government. The New York "Times" and other papers have been misled by some New York speculators, who have evidently been trying to create a false impression.

An Immediate Blaze at Greenfield, Ind.

Greenfield, Ind., Aug. 18.—[Special.]—At an early hour this morning a conflagration broke out in Eberhart, a small town directly across the river from here. A PRESCRIPTION FOR DYSPEPSIA.

Certain, harmless, natural, and most agreeable of all, an Angel visitor. By complying with the following suggestions of the symptoms of dyspepsia, such as flatulence of stomach, nausea, vomiting, nervousness, insomnia, sleeplessness, sick headache, heartburn, etc., etc., will disappear, the sufferer will again be cheerful, able to fulfill his duties and to enjoy life. Thousands have been profited already, and many thousands more can be made happy also. Here is the prescription:

Breakfast—A slice of toast or a dish of oatmeal meal, a cup of coffee or tea (if desired), and a glass of Arend's Kumyss.

Dinner—A moderate piece of lean beef or mutton, a mealy potato, a little bread, and a glass of Arend's Kumyss.

Supper—Eat solid food whatever, simply one or two glasses of Arend's Kumyss. A glass of Kumyss may also be taken on retiring. Most people sleep better on it.

Though this regimen of diet may seem exact to such as are in the habit of satisfying their appetites (and distinguishing between appetite and hunger), yet scientific investigation and experience have proved that it is sufficient for all but hard laborers. With above diet the dyspeptic grows fleshy, ruddy, healthy, where on a richer diet he always pines, weeds and sickens. One week's trial will tell the story and prove the logic of above suggestions.

ILLINOIS.

Chicago, Ill., Aug. 20.—[Special.]—Mayor Carter H. Harrison, candidate for Representative-at-large on the Democratic ticket, addressed a rousing meeting last night and kept a large audience, the Hollenbeck Club hall, interested and applauding by the enthusiasm of the occasion. The Republican Club hall was crowded and added greatly to the enthusiasm of the occasion. The Republicans of Chicago are quiet and promise to swing the township for Roosevelt and Yates. Several Democrats associated with Cornwell have declared for Stone.

A rousing meeting of Democrats was held last night at Stone and Yates Hall, addressing meeting was organized. A large Democratic rep absent Republicans were present. Democrats from Republican clubs were also present.

Springfield, Ill., Aug. 20.—[Special.]—The Democratic meeting held here last night was addressed by Judge John H. Hamlin, Democrat of the First Congressional district. The meeting was presided over by Hon. Thomas F. Tipton, who introduced the speaker in a few words. Judge Hamlin has been making a number of speeches in Sangamon county in behalf of the Democratic ticket, and while always glad to be in Springfield, he always enjoys more to be in the Democratic county of this county, and who always turn out in large numbers to hear the speakers of the party. Judge Hamlin is one of the most forcible and logical speakers in the State of Illinois, and his speech last night was one of the greatest ever delivered in this city. He compared the present administration with that of Democratic administrations, and showed where every Democratic administration had been a benefit to the people, and the last Democratic administration, that of Grover Cleveland, was the best that ever ruled this country. He showed how every Democratic administration had been a benefit to the people, and how every Republican administration had been a curse to the people. He showed how the Democratic party had been the party of economy, and how the Republican party had been the party of extravagance. He showed how the Democratic party had been the party of peace, and how the Republican party had been the party of war. He showed how the Democratic party had been the party of prosperity, and how the Republican party had been the party of hard times. He showed how the Democratic party had been the party of the people, and how the Republican party had been the party of the trusts. He showed how the Democratic party had been the party of the laboring man, and how the Republican party had been the party of the capitalist. THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE.

The Executive Committee of the Republican State Convention met at the Tremont yesterday afternoon, having a secret session which lasted two hours. The committee was represented by John M. Nash, James S. Morris, John C. Haines, Charles J. Sprague, H. A. Tucker and Thomas B. Bryan. "Long" Jones, as Chairman of the State Central Committee, was present to introduce the members, as was also Leo Knopf, the secretary of the committee.

The question of funds came up, of course, and it was in order to point out Democratic apprehensions on the subject by saying that there was no property deposited under a Negro Equality constitutional amendment which could be confiscated by the State. The committee had not much the appearance of business men, but a Republican would not be long in the presence of the members before he would feel sure that the contest was going to be a close one, and that the Democratic party would have to work hard to win. The committee was in session about two hours, and then adjourned to meet at the call of the Chairman.

The Chicago men were very much pleased with the reception which they met with in the State, and they have every reason to be so. Everywhere they found the Republicans in the best of spirits, and confident of success. The Democrats seem to be in a state of confusion, and are not prepared to meet the issues which are presented to them. The Republicans have a good ticket in the field, and the platform is one which will be endorsed by the people. The Democrats have not yet made up their minds whether to endorse the platform or not, and they have not yet decided whether they will run a ticket of their own or not. ANNOUNCEMENT.

We respectfully announce to the people of Chicago and vicinity that after more than six months of the most careful preparation and systematic labor, in which no trouble or expense has been thought excessive in securing the

MOST ELEGANT AND MODERN STORE FIXTURES AND APPLIANCES

Which experience and forethought could devise and suggest, our preparations have been thoroughly and successfully completed for

THE SPECIAL GRAND AND INITIAL DISPLAY

Which we intend shall appropriately signalize the

OPENING and INAUGURATION

OF OUR

NEW. ELEGANT RETAIL DRY GOODS ESTABLISHMENT.

Which Will Occur on Monday, September 1st, 1884.

For this special occasion we shall exhibit and place on sale exclusively original and desirable assortments of the present season's importations, and domestic productions of Fine Dry Goods, comprising

EARLY FALL NOVELTIES,

Which have been specially selected for us by a corps of thoroughly efficient and capable Department Managers in the markets of London, Paris, Vienna, and Berlin, as well as from our own domestic manufacturers, the aggregate exceeding in magnitude and extent all previous efforts in the history of the Dry Goods Trade in the West.

Our opening display of these MAGNIFICENT AND UNRIVALED STOCKS of exclusively New, Elegant, and Desirable Merchandise will be systematically divided into Special Departments occupying 72,000 SQUARE FEET of show space, WITH ALL DEPARTMENTS ON A SINGLE FLOOR, obviating the use of the annoying elevator, the disadvantage of stair climbing, and possessing a system of PERFECT LIGHT AND VENTILATION which, together with our admirable interior arrangements and designs, go far toward making ours unquestionably one of the most attractive and inviting RETAIL DRY GOODS STORES in America. Each of our DEPARTMENTS is replete with Specialties to which it is devoted, and will be found to contain Exclusive Novelties of our own importation in the following lines of goods, viz:

The Clearing Season of Sales.

In the second week there is nothing quite so important as the movements of persons engaged and active. All manner of movements have been made during the summer in regard to the possibilities for future sales in New York during the coming season. To a great measure the public of Chicago knows the arrangements that are made at the Metropolitan Opera-House and the Academy of Music in New York for what purports to be their season. But the competition that are engaged there generally serves a part of the season to the Eastern cities. It has been stated, however, that the Auditorium in Chicago is the only spring and the only season of the year when the Metropolitan Opera-House and the Academy of Music in New York are closed. Chicago is the very spring and the only season of the year when the Metropolitan Opera-House and the Academy of Music in New York are closed.
